

Shelby District Scoutmaster Leader Specific Training Spring 2012

Welcome to the wonderful world of Boy Scouting and to Scoutmaster Leader Specific Training! Are you just crossing over from Cub Scouts or have you been a leader for a while but just have not been able to find a local training opportunity? Well, after completing this course, you will learn the specific tasks and skills that a Scout leader needs to implement the values and ethics of the Scouting program. This training is REQUIRED of ALL scoutmasters AND assistant scoutmasters. Troop Committee members are also welcome to attend. This one day class will give you the tools and the resources you need to be an effective scoutmaster or assistant scoutmaster. Please note that Fast Start, New Leader Essentials, Scoutmaster Leader Specific Training, and Outdoor Leader Skills are required to meet the BSA trained standard.

PREREQUISITE: Boy Scout Fast Start training & Youth Protection Training found at: <http://scoutnet.scouting.org/elearning>. Click on this address now.

MATERIALS NEEDED: An empty 3 ring binder, Boy Scout Handbook, pen, paper, your own sack lunch, and a desire to learn. Please wear your official Boy Scout leader uniform.

COST: FREE, Donations accepted to cover snacks and drinks for the day. Coffee, water and other drinks will be available.

WHEN & WHERE: Saturday, April 21st, 2012 at the Riverchase Church of Christ on Hwy 31 in Pelham, check-in begins at 8 AM, instruction begins at 8:30 AM. Program will end around 3:00 PM. You will be expected to be present for the entire training session.

Scoutmaster Leader Specific Training will revolve around three themes: Getting Started - The Role of the Scoutmaster in a Boy-Led Troop; Lighting the Fire - The Outdoor Program and Advancement Program; and Keeping It Going - Program Planning and Troop Administration.
