

2011 Shelby District Cub Scout Advancement Day

Event Date, Time & Location

Saturday, October 1, 2011

Oak Mountain High School

8:30 am – 11:30 am (Check-in at 8:00)

Purpose of the Event

To allow Cub Scouts to earn Cub Scout Academics & Sports Belt Loops under qualified instructors.
Tiger Cub parents will need to accompany their scout.

Classes offered

Astronomy, Chess, Geography*, Geology, Map and Compass, Marbles, Science,
Ultimate, Volleyball, Weather, and Wildlife Conservation.

Cubs may take any 3 classes. *Cub needs to bring to class a map he has drawn of his neighborhood showing natural and man-made features and a legend of map symbols. Cub needs to bring to class a map he has drawn of his neighborhood showing street names and the route taken to a place that he often visits (such as school or the store). A compass will be provided, but cubs may bring their own.

Cost:

$10.00 - covers insurance and patch only, no food is provided.

(Webelos Scouts attending both sessions are encouraged to bring a lunch to eat between morning and afternoon sessions).

A COOL DOOR PRIZE WILL BE RANDOMLY AWARDED TO ONE SCOUT WHO CORRECTLY ANSWERS
THE QUESTIONS ON THE BACK OF HIS REGISTRATION CARD AT THE END OF EACH SESSION.

Uniforms:

All Scouts should wear their Class A (Field) uniform with a Class B (Scout T-shirt) underneath the Class A uniform

Registration

Registration forms should be received at GAC by September 23. Classes will be filled based on the date the registration form is received. Classes are limited to 16 Scouts per session. Once a class is full, cubs will be assigned to a class on their second choice list. After all classes have been filled, Scouts will be put on a waiting list. Webelos will be permitted to attend classes once Cub Scouts have registered, if space permits.
